President's Report – Alice Kellogg

I hope everyone had a good time at the Quilter's Market and found some bargains. We would like to know how you felt about it. Would it be worth doing again next year or maybe the year after that? Tell or e-mail a board member and let us know if you thought this was a worthwhile venture or a waste of time.

The catalog Quilts & Other Comforts, has started a new program. If you ever order from them, please let them know that you belong to EQG. For every dollar you spend, the guild is given a credit voucher that we can use to purchase fabric for the Warm Fuzzy committee or anything in their catalog that we might need as a guild. If you do not receive their catalog, I hope to have a stack of them at the March meeting.

It is renewal time. If you have not renewed your membership, now is the time. You can download a renewal form (and yes, we want you to fill it out) and mail it to EQG, P O Box 1843, Edmond, Ok 73083. Attach a check for $20 for membership or $26 if you want your newsletter mailed to you this year. You can also bring it to the next meeting. Tell your quilting friends to join the fun and become a member too.

REMINDER—The next meeting will be held at Rose State College at the Tom Steed Center. We will be sharing Trish Stuart with our sister guild, NAQG. If you would like to carpool and/or caravan, Pat Sherman will be in the church parking lot at 6 p.m. and lead you to Rose. If you need directions, it is easy to find. From Edmond, take I-35 to I-40. Take the Ft. Smith exit to access I-40. Exit at Hudiburg Drive, turn left to cross over the interstate. Tom Steed Center is on your left. Check in at the Edmond table.

If you are interested in taking a Trish Stuart class, she will be teaching two classes at My Sister's Quilt. Check with them for times and workshop fees.

We have been invited to Norman for their monthly meeting in April. Together with two other guilds and a stitch group, we are sponsoring Michelle Watts to come to Oklahoma. Mark your calendar now!

Michelle Watts – April 18th (Monday) in Norman.

She will also be teaching workshops that whole week. We hope to have flyers at the next meeting explaining each workshop and where they will be held. This is your chance to take a workshop from a nationally known teacher without leaving your hometown.

We are starting our second year with a bang! See you in Midwest City and until then.. here's keeping you in stitches.

Vice-President's Report – Judy Elliott

How much fun did we have this last meeting!! Joan did a great job of getting this organized and it appeared that everyone was enjoying themselves. Hopefully folks got some good deals. I picked up a couple of crib quilt books (I have friends having babies and I got some great ideas from these new books) along with several other books and some fun fabric scraps. I saw other folks with their arms full of books, bags of fabric, and old quilts purchased at great prices. Hopefully everyone else had fun. We will definitely want guild member's feedback to determine if we should schedule another quilter's market down the road.

I would like to say thank you to Lucy McAnelly who so graciously donated her time to help man the guild miscellaneous table. With all my running hither and yon, she was a blessing! Thanks also go to Cameron Potter and Debbie Croft for their help manning the guild fabric table. Thank you to all the individuals that donated items for the guild table. I think I can speak for all the guild members when I say thank you for your generosity.

We also squeezed in a brief meeting in between all the sales. The next block lottery was handed out and will also be found in this newsletter. THIS BLOCK IS NOT DUE FOR 2 MEETINGS – WHICH TRANSLATES TO THE MARCH MEETING. That gives everyone extra time to work on “them” – notice how I said “them”; with the extra time allowed, I expect lots of blocks from everyone! The reason for the two month time frame is due to the joint meeting in February at Rose State. It would be too complicated to manage the lottery results in the joint meeting. Se we'll tally our results at the March meeting.

See ya at the next meeting and happy quilting!

Program Report – Joan Ballew

February - Trish Stuart will speak at a joint meeting with the Norman Guild. This meeting will be held at Rose State College's Tom Steed Center. See President's report for directions.

I've heard Trish before and know this will be a great program. Sorry I will miss the February meeting, as I will be on a quilting cruise but promise to show and share the results of three classes in March.

March – Nancy Barrett

March 19th - Pat Sherman will be teaching a workshop on making her teacup placemat. It will be on Saturday from 9 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. If you are interested you need to call Pat at 715-5772. She will send the materials list and cutting instructions. The place will be determined by the number who sign up so please do so as soon as possible. The workshop costs $10 and can be paid at the workshop.

April – Amy Steward Winsor, Quilt Artist from North Carolina who will be speaking on the subject of “When You Can't Precision Piece, and You Hate Math, What Do You Do?”

Workshop – Michelle Watts – “Santa Cruz” Thursday evening 4-21-05.

Details of other workshops and presentations to other area quilt groups will be available soon.

**ATTA GIRL/ATTA BOY!!

Congratulations to all who entered quilts in the Winter Quilt Show. Edmond Quilt Guild was well represented at the show and some of you won ribbons.

The biggest winner was Marsha Dean who won a Judge's Choice Award, which was more than a ribbon. She won a cash prize!

In Large Artisan/Mixed, it was a clean sweep. First place was Charlotte Hickman followed by Lucy McAnelly and Alice Kellogg.

Charlotte also won ribbons in Artisan/Wall and Embellishment (blue ribbon).

Lucy also won a ribbon in Large Traditional Pieced.

Laura James earned a ribbon in Artisan/Wall Applique.

Sherrill Lewis, our bead lady, won a ribbon in the Garment category.

Don Lusk took ribbons in the Traditional Wall/appliqué and First Quilt categories.

Janice O'Neal won Traditional Wall/applique (blue ribbon).

We are so proud to have you in our guild and keep up the good work!

If I missed anyone, please accept my apologies and let us know.

Please bring your winners to the March guild meeting. I know we would all love to see them.

**Lost and Found

There were two things left behind after the last meeting. One was a bottle of coke. Thanks!! It was delicious. The other was a black and red fleece scarf. Give Alice a call if it belongs to you. Her number is 348-2233.

**Special Feature – New Small Group Formed

On January 25th, 10 ladies met at My Sister's Quilt Shop to talk about starting a small group. We had a wonderful time getting to know each other and how we came to be at the meeting. We discussed our concept of a small group and, interestingly, everyone's concept was very similar. Because a small group should remain small, this small group is big enough.

We had such a good time, we encourage others who are interested in forming a small group to sign one of the sheets at the March meeting. There will be sheets for people interested in art quilts, appliqué, and traditional piecing. If you can think of another interest group, perhaps hand quilting, feel free to start a sheet for a group interested in that. No meeting time or date will be on the sign up sheet, but everyone who signs up will get a call and a meeting will be set up based on the list. There is every reason to form many small groups based on common interests. So think about joining one of the groups being formed.
