President's Report- Alice Kellogg

Congratulations to Laura James, Brenda Dodson and me for being elected to the next board that will take office in January. I am looking forward to next year and yet I feel a little sad that my presidency is over. I really had a good time with very few heart-aches. I am so proud that the guild is a success and we are making progress. We are having our very first quilt show. We have made many people happy with our charity quilts and placemats and all of us have made new friends. I know I have.

At the last meeting, Reta handed out the instructions and the muslin foundation for the President's Block. If you did not attend the November meeting, we will have the foundations at the December meeting or you may call me (348-2233) to make arrangements to obtain one. This is an easy block to make and you can easily put your personality and creativity into it. I am looking forward to seeing what some of you do. I am always astounded and pleased by our members when it comes to originality and creativity.

Try to come to the December meeting. We will have a speaker, plus a little party. You won't want to miss that!

Until next time, here's keeping you in stitches...

Mission Statement

The mission of the Edmond Quilt Guild is to preserve, teach and share the history and art of quilting

Vice-President- Adrian Thompson

The EQG Christmas Party will be December 19th. There will be a couple of games, punch and goodies. If you are so inclined, bring some cookies or other finger food. Also, bring a fat quarter and turn it into the sign-in table. It does not have to be a Christmas fabric, but make it a good quality fabric that you would want to receive in return. We have tried to make this party fun, but with as little hassle as possible. We know you are busy with your own Christmas'.

Peace On Earth

Program Report - Joan Ballew

December 19th - Joan Hess from the Centennial Commission will be the speaker. This will be a great opportunity to get ideas for the Theme category of our first quilt show.

January 16th- Anniversary Party and Quilter's Bingo! Come for our birthday celebration. Enjoy cake and punch and then get ready for some fun and prizes as we play "Quilt"

Raffle Quilt Update

Many of you turned in raffle tickets. Horray! for you. Thanks for selling them. And many of you asked for more. Horray! for you. This is what is going to make the quilt raffle a huge success. If you need more tickets, you don't have to wait for quilt day. Give me a call and I will make sure you get more.

Do you have a niece, nephew, grandchild, neighbor or someone that you usually give a dozen cookies or a $5 bill? Give them raffle tickets! They will never forget this Christmas if they happen to be the one that wins our beautiful raffle quilt

I plan to have the first drawing in January. We will draw from the tickets that have already been sold and if you sold that ticket, you win a prize. Get those tickets in!

happy Hanukkah

Quilt Show Chairman – Lee Gray

The Quilt Show committee is making great progress on our quilt show scheduled for Sept. 7 & 8, 2007. We will be running an ad in the Winter Quilt Show program, plus have fliers available at their handout table. Fliers will be available the first of January.

Dagmar Peery our Publicity chairman has done a great job designing our ads and flier. EQG members only may enter quilts in our judged quilt show. You must be a member of EQG by Feb. 1, 2007 to enter a quilt in our Sept. 2007 Quilt Show. So get your membership renewal in ASAP.

You all can really help us by selling as many raffle tickets as possible. The raffle quilt will play a major part in helping pay for the quilt show. See Alice Kellogg for raffle tickets.

Our Quilt Show has been approved by the Edmond Centennial commission as a centennial project. Hope everyone is working on their special "theme" category quilts. Lee Gray

Membership Report– Debi Pickens

It's Time to Renew!!!

Can you believe it is almost 2007? That means your EQG dues are due. It is $20 for a regular membership and $26 if you need the newsletter mailed to you. Remember you can't enter a quilt in the show if you are not a current member. I will collect dues at the December meeting or you can mail them to me at:

Debi Pickens 10324 Exter Ave. Yukon, OK 73099

We had 54 members and 2 guests at the November meeting. We also had 26 great entries in the challenge. Wasn't that a great prize!! We currently have 131 members but I'm sure you have a friend who would like to come. Invite someone to the Dec. meeting and bring an extra fat quarter to welcome them. I'm sure it will be fun.

My Christmas wish for you, my friend
Is not a simple one
For I wish you hope and joy and peace
Days filled with warmth and sun

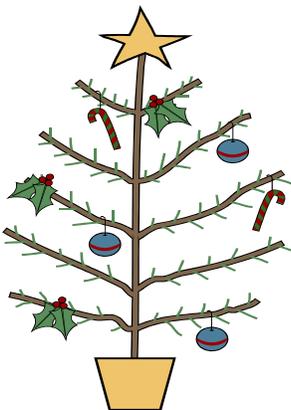

I wish you love and friendship too
Throughout the coming year
Lots of laughter and happiness
To fill your world with cheer

May you count your blessings, one by one
And when totaled by the lot
May you find all you've been given
To be more than what you sought

May your journeys be short, your burdens light
May your spirit never grow old
May all your clouds have silver linings
And your rainbows pots of gold

I wish this all and so much more
May all your dreams come true
May you have a Merry Christmas friend
And a happy New Year, too ..
