Mission Statement

The mission of the Edmond Quilt Guild is to preserve, teach and share the history and art of quilting

President's Report– Laura James

JUNE MEETING LOCATION

On Tuesday June 19th we have our joint meeting with the Norman guild. I want to remind everyone the program will be held at HB Atkinson Theater at Rose State in Midwest City. The program report includes a map and detailed directions.

BUDGET APPROVED

I am proud of the work the board put into preparing the budgets and pleased with Brenda's presentation at the May meeting. I am especially happy that the membership approved the budget. As we proceed toward the quilt show it's clear we're on good solid footings. If you were not at the May meeting and would like to see our budget copies will be available at upcoming meetings.

QUILT SHOW ENTRY DEADLINE LOOMS

The deadline to submit your entry forms is 7/7/07. While you have just one month to complete the entry form you still have three more months to add the finishing touches to your quilts. Please choose the quilt or quilts you want to enter in the show and get the forms completed. You can bring them to the meeting in June and simply give them to anyone of the board or quilt show committee members or entries can be mailed.

and FINALLY I want to extend special thanks to the "Two guys from Tulsa" for their wonderful trunk show and mini lesson on snippets. Wow, I've never attended a program where EVERYONE went home with two, much less one, free pattern. What a treat.

Laura

Vice-President– Adrian Thompson

Raffle Quilt

Our beautiful raffle quilt will be visiting the Shop Hop in Perkins.

It has been hanging at My Sister's Quilt all through May and will probably return to the shop in the summertime. If know of any FREE place that we can set up and sell raffle tickets, please let me know.

In the meantime, keep selling tickets. If you have run out, come see me and I will be glad to give you a few more to sell.

Alice Kellogg

Program Report - Alice Kellogg

How many of you have made spider web quilts? Gary and Joe were so generous to share their patterns and tips with us. What a treat we had last meeting.

Now for BIGGIE of the year. Mickey Depre will be here in June and it is our joint meeting with Norman.

She will be offering a workshop the same day as guild and it will be held at Rose State College. We still have a couple of spots left, so if you were thinking about this, give me a call quickly before I release our extra spots to Norman.

The workshop is called "Permission to Play" and NO machine is needed.

$30 for members $35 for non-members Call me for a spot. 348-2233

June 19: Please note that last newsletter had the wrong date. It is Tuesday, June 19 for the Mickey Depre lecture.

- We will be meeting at Rose State College, HB Atkinson Theater. There is also a map in this newsletter, but here are some directions. Exit I-40 at 15th street. Turn left under the bridge. Turn right at Johnson (there is a Rose State logo where you turn). Follow the road to the parking lot. Park where you can see the Fine Arts building. Walk to the right of that building and the theater is right in front of you. If you exit at Hudiburg, you can park in front of the Humanities building and walk across the courtyard. To your left you will see a building that says "theater" on it. That's it!

July 17: Susan Lucky will speak to us about her "Legacy of Hope" project and working with the ABC baby quilt project. She will be an inspiration to all of you and we are proud to have her as a guild member.

August 21: Phil Charlton will open your world to quilting with computers. The computer can be a valuable tool to quilters and he will show us how.

September 18: Time to think about Christmas projects! Doris Williams and Ann Woods will have a trunk show of numerous Christmas quilts and other quilted Christmas items.

October 16: Puzzle Quilts with Leola Jenkins. Leola has a unique eye for color and form. You will love her work and her quilting outlook.

November 20: Quilt Bingo! Lots of fun and lots of prizes.

December 18: Christmas party

Quilt Show Chairman – Lee Gray

Quilt Show update

Well, we are getting closer and closer to our first Quilt Show. I am very excited and pleased with the great comments and response so far. Can't wait to see all those entry forms coming in by 7/07/07.

Thanks for all the pre-orders on the T-shirts. We will have them available for pick-up at our June 19th meeting which is being held at Rose State College. If you are unable to attend in June we will keep your T-shirt till the July meeting. Be sure and wear your T-shirt often to help advertise our upcoming quilt show.

Enjoy the "Shop Hop" and then get right back to quilting. We want everyone to see what talented quilters we have in our Guild. Lee

Membership Report– Debi Pickens

We had 60 members and 6 guests at the last meeting. Wasn't that fun! We currently have 127 members in our great guild. I still have a group of membership cards that have not been picked up.

I will be sending out the rosters via e-mail as soon as school is out. My life is too crazy to do it till next week. I loved that week of snow days in January but I'm paying for it now with school until June 6th.

P.S. Evelyn is steadily improving.

Loving Touch– Cheryl Boles

Our workdays have been quite productive. So far we have about 630 blocks ready to put together in the denim/flannel quilts for the teen boys in foster care. That is almost enough for 6 twin-size quilts.

The workdays are held at Hancock Fabrics in Bryant Square. The next workday is Sunday, June 3rd from 1-4. Other workdays in June are Friday the 21st and Friday the 28th from 1-4.

No workday during the Shop Hop.

The premie quilts are starting to come in and they are so cute! The sizes that are needed are squares from 15 to 24 inches.

Thank you for your hard work! Cheryl Boles

Guild Members:

Fons and Porter's Love of Quilting is again offering to local guilds participation in their Guild Subscription program. This allows each of us as guild members to renew our subscription (or order a new subscription) for the low cost of $20.00 with $5.00 of the cost being retained by the guild for our operating expenses.

What do you receive:

A one-year subscription to Love of Quilting

How do you renew or order a subscription? It simple:

- Your check to Edmond Quilt Guild for the $20.00 subscription price.
- You name and mailing address for the subscription.

Whether it is a new or renewal subscription.

Orders will be submitted weekly. So order your Fons & Porter's Love of Quilting and enjoy a great quilting magazine and benefit the Edmond Quilt Guild.

Note From the Board

It has been brought to our attention that people in the back could not hear the speaker. We will try our best to have our speakers wear a microphone.

There were also complaints that people were talking during the program. It is exciting to receive "presents" like free patterns and handouts, but we need to keep in mind that others are trying to hear the speakers.

For Sale

I have 30 panels of the Quiltsmart Double Wedding Ring that I would like to sell. I bought 32 panels a couple years ago, tried it and really didn't like the way it worked. I planned to make a queen-sized quilt for a niece who is getting married this July 4. Needless to say, I'm doing something else for her wedding quilt. On the Quiltsmart webpage, it sells for $3/panel. I would like to get half that back, so will sell the 30 panels for $45.
