Mission Statement

The mission of the Edmond Quilt Guild is to preserve, teach and share the history and art of quilting

President's Report- Laura James

Okay this is it - the excitement builds and now it's time for the grand event - EQG is going PRIME TIME with our first ever QUILT SHOW. Little did we imagine five years ago when the guild was first conceived that we be holding a quilt show so quickly. But the volunteers stepped up to the plate and the quilters have done what they do so well and created some winning quilts. Now the time has come. This is our field of dreams -we've built it - now we are simply hoping they will come!

Well let's not just hope, let's get on the phone and send emails and invite every cousin, aunt, co-worker and friend you can think of to come and enjoy the show.

See you there!

Laura James

Program Report - Alice Kellogg

Thanks, Phil and Don, for an informative talk on quilting with computers. The EQ6 program is a very helpful tool for quilters and you made it easy to understand.

It does not feel like Winter time yet, but fall is just around the corner and if you need to be inspired to start your Christmas projects, then don't miss September's meeting. Doris and Ann from Shawnee are going to give us all the motivation we need to start thinking about Christmas.

Do you have a ribbon from our quilt show??? Wear your ribbons to the September guild meeting so that we can brag and pat each other on the back. (Gee, I hope I win one.)

September 18: Time to think about Christmas projects! Doris Williams and Ann Woods will have a trunk show of numerous Christmas quilts and other quilted Christmas items. You are sure to be inspired.

October 16: Puzzle Quilts with Leola Jenkins. Leola has a unique eye for color and form. You will love her work and her quilting outlook.

November 20: Quilt Bingo! Lots of fun and lots of prizes.

December 18: Christmas party

January 15: Susan Lucky will speak to us about her "Legacy of Hope" project and working with the ABC baby quilt project.

February 19: Our own prize-winning Marilyn Karper will talk to us about quilting and photography.

Quilt Show Chairman – Lee Gray

Well, its here, the days we have all been working toward for the past year. The "Quilt Show" Sept. 7 & 8 and everything is ready.

I just want to give a very special "Thank You" to my Quilt Show committee members, Bonnie Bowman, Cameron Potter and Dagmar Peery and our advisors Judy Elliott and Alice Kellogg, They have given a lot of their time and energy this past year to make this a successful show for you and the guild.

Also, a special thanks to Sue Esparza, Joan Ballew, Phyllis Miller, Tricia Vaughn, Karen Davis, Pat Cordell and Meredith Quinn, who made the beautiful ribbons for the show.

I have certainly enjoyed being your Quilt Show Chairman and having the opportunity to get to know more of our great guild members.

Lee Gray

Loving Touch– Cheryl Boles

Our denim/flannel quilts are coming along just great. There are ten kits out and we are nearing the end of quilting the blocks together for the remaining fourteen. These quilts are Christmas presents for teen boys in a foster care group home - part of Citizens Caring for Children.

The preemie quilts keep coming in and they are so cute that they just need to be shared at our meetings before they go to brighten up the isolates at Children's' Hospital. The size for preemie quilts is between 15 to 24 inches square.

Thanks for all the hard work!

Cheryl Boles
