Mission Statement

The mission of the Edmond Quilt Guild is to preserve, teach and share the history and art of quilting

President's Report– Laura James

I hate to miss a meeting, but I trust everything went fine in my absence.

I'd like to ask you to think about candidates for the four board positions that are opening in January - VP, Secretary, newsletter and membership. The other three will change the following year. In a nutshell the responsibilities are, the VP runs the membership meeting making sure that the speaker and vendor have what they need at the meeting, the secretary takes the minutes of the board meeting and keeps records, the newsletter director prepares the format and articles from the board and committee and posts it on-line each month, and the membership director keeps member records, handles renewals, provides the newsletter director with current information and greets everyone as they sign in at meetings. The board meetings have been great fun this year and I will miss those who have fulfilled their terms, but now is your chance to step up to the plate and help build the guild.

INVITE EVERYONE YOU KNOW TO OUR SHOW.

See you soon,
Laura

 Attention Pattern Testers ***

Thanks to everyone who volunteered to test the pattern for the EQG Raffle Quilt - Bear Paw Bouquet. So far I've received great suggestions from three people. For the rest of you, please consider this a gentle reminder to:

- 1) read thru the pattern
- 2) make at least one block
- 3) send comments, suggestions, any kind of feed-back - to me at joanballew@cox.net or call me after 5pm 715-0602.

If this is a bad time for you to take this on - please bring the pattern back to me at the next meeting, and we'll find another tester.

Thanks again, Joan

Program Report - Alice Kellogg

We were all disappointed that Susan could not speak at our last meeting but the good news is that she has rescheduled for January. We now look forward to Phil Carlton who will speak to us about computers and how we can use them in our quilting endeavors.

August 21: Phil Carlton will open your world to quilting with computers. The computer can be a valuable tool to quilters and he will show us how.

September 18: Time to think about Christmas projects! Doris Williams and Ann Woods will have a trunk show of numerous Christmas quilts and other quilted Christmas items. You are sure to be inspired.

October 16: Puzzle Quilts with Leola Jenkins. Leola has a unique eye for color and form. You will love her work and her quilting outlook.

November 20: Quilt Bingo! Lots of fun and lots of prizes.

December 18: Christmas party

January 15: Susan Lucky will speak to us about her "Legacy of Hope" project and working with the ABC baby quilt project

Quilt Show Chairman – Lee Gray

Quilt Show update.

Just want to thank all of you who entered your quilts in our first ever quilt show. I have reviewed all the entries with Cameron and we have a great collection of quilts to be judged. Visitors can't help but be impressed with all the talent we have in our guild.

I also want to thank you for your support. The July EQG meeting was very uplifting to me because everyone was so positive and supportive.

Remember to add the sleeve to your entries and be sure you have a label with the quilt name and your name. The label needs to be sewn to the lower right hand corner of the quilt (as you look at the back)

Be sure and review the "Quilt Show Entry Checklist" so things will go smoothly for all.

Lee Gray

Loving Touch– Cheryl Boles

We now have a few kits made up for the denim/flannel quilts for the teen boys in foster care. They will be available at the August meeting.

Workdays are at Hancock Fabrics, 2nd and Bryant, on the Fridays of August 17th, 24th and 31st from 1-5.

There continues to be a need for preemie quilts. The sizes for preemie quilts are between 15 and 24 inches square.

Hospice is for people of all ages. They need small lap robes that are about 36 inches square, large ones 60 inches square, or similar size of rectangular quilts.

Thanks for your help! Cheryl Boles

WHAT: Centennial Story Telling/Quilt Show/Book Signing Party/Opening Reception of Exhibit

WHEN: August 26th, Sunday, 3:00-5:00 pm

WHERE: Blue Room on the Second Floor of the State Capitol

CONTACT: Arts Council 405-521-2038, Judy Howard 405-751-3885

Come celebrate Oklahoma's hundredth birthday Sunday, August 26th, 3:00-4:30 pm at Judy Howard's Centennial Stitches Story Telling/Quilt Show/Book Signing Party in the beautiful Blue Room on the Second Floor of the State Capitol, 2300 N. Lincoln Blvd, Oklahoma City.

Enjoy featured speaker, professional story teller and award-winning author Molly Lemmons, wearing her 1950's poodle skirt, as she shares her humorous "Downtown OKC as it was--Only the Memories Remain" and her story in Heavenly Patchwork II. Other story contributors from Judy's three centennial books will share their quilt stories about early Oklahoma: Kay Bishop, Dolores Willis, Karen Judd, Joyce Stanley, Carol Shi, Darlena Eichman, and many others.

After the program, don't miss this opportunity to view the spectacular Capitol Dome and enjoy refreshments from 4:30-5:00 pm at the Opening Reception of Judy Howard's "Centennial Stitches-Oklahoma History in Quilts" Exhibit in the East Wing Gallery on the First Floor scheduled for August 20th through October 21st.

Free. Public invited.
